STAN MOORE

Humble High School, Class of 1974

Stan Moore is a proud graduate of Humble High School class of 1974. While in high school, he served as the football team captain for JV team and varsity team. He was a member of the National Honor Society, student council and President of Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He was the Mr. Humble High School runner up. He continued his education at Baylor University, obtaining a Bachelors of Science Degree in Biology and then on to the University of North Texas to receive a Masters' Degree in Film and Theater. He served also as President of the Lambda Chapter of Phi Delta Theta at Baylor.

Stan Moore is a two-time Emmy Award award-winning filmmaker who has worked in the film industry for over 30 years on feature films, music videos and corporate/documentary projects. From work as an actor and stuntman to writer and director, Moore found a niche in writing and directing over 200 music videos for rock, Christian and country artists.

His production company, MP Films, has produced over 70 television commercials, 200+ music videos, and 300+ industrial films. His company has completed projects for clients such as IBM, EMI, Focus On The Family, The Magic Johnson Foundation, Sony-BMG, Thomas Nelson Publishers, Tyndale House Publishers, and Warner Bros. among others.

As not only a double Emmy Award winner but also a 5-time Emmy nominee, his films have been shown at festivals around the world including the American Film Institute, the Hollywood Film Festival, the Houston Film Festival and the Chicago International Film Festival. Moore's documentary work has also been recognized by the Liberty Film Festival in Los Angeles, the Telly Awards, the Hollywood Florida Film Festival, the Ft. Lauderdale Film Festival and numerous others.

In 2006, Stan partnered with his wife, Laurie, to establish Proclaiming Justice to the Nations, a worldwide Christian based ministry organization to fight anti-semitism and Israel hatred. Over the years, they have produced several award winning documentaries and a 94 episodic TV series titled Focus On Israel.

In addition, he has taught creative/media writing, production and acting for television and film. He is a former faculty member at the University of North Texas and Texas Christian University. Stan has also enjoyed community theater in Pull-Tight Community Theater in Franklin, Tennessee where he received Best Actor awards in 1982 & 1983.

Stan says his finest achievement are his successful marriage and the raising of five wonderful children.
